

Market Bosworth Festival Presents:
Friday Night Comedy with:

On this Day in 2002 – Spike Milligan, Irish comedian and writer died, aged 83. "I told you I was ill" was put on his Headstone.

PETE TECKMAN

Compere

Wonderful award-winning comedian with side-splittingly funny stories about being a short, bald man!

STEVE HALL

Wonderfully witty comic, who regularly supports Russell Howard on his arena tours and has appeared on his TV show.

"His phrasing is joyous and his choice of words close to poetic...tales of hilarious woe" – Metro

"The most intelligent stand-up you've never heard of" (GQ)

FRIZ FRIZZLE

Brilliant musical funnyman, who will have you howling with laughter at his gloriously witty song parodies.

TOM WRIGGLESWORTH

Outstanding wordsmith with several highly popular Radio 4 series and sell-out Edinburgh Festival runs under his belt.

"The ultimate crowd pleaser" - The Guardian

"Magical storytelling...a rare talent...hysterical & accomplished" - Time Out.

'The gods of comedy chose greatness for Tom' (The Scotsman).

Friday 27th February 2026

The Dixie Grammar School

Tickets £15.00 (£17.50 on door) online at www.bosworthfestival.co.uk or at Michaelmas House.

Doors open 7pm for 8pm start - Licensed bar, cabaret seating.